I welcome you to come and gather with us this June in Ireland, at Tig Roy in the beautiful Glen of Aherlow, Tipperary, on retreat with David Hoffmeister.

This is a wonderful opportunity to join with David in an intimate setting before he winds down his world travels. Truly inspirational and uncompromising, He is clearly the Voice for God, a beacon to all intent on undoing the blocks to Love and a Mighty Companion in relinquishing all that limits our awareness of Whom We Truly Are. It is in this honest sharing and exposing of the false that we remember our innate Innocence and experience greater Peace of mind, now.

For his 2009 "Sing me Awake!" European Tour, David is joined by Helena Sjunnesson. This gathering invites you to go deeper with the mind training offered by A Course in Miracles, to experience the true Joy of the practical application of forgiveness and the support and freedom that comes from joining in Purpose. Using songs and movies as modern day parables, open question and answer forums, as well as one-to-ones, this weekend offers an oasis of refreshment to all those done with desert wandering.

The time is Now!
